

Senior Team Development

Senior Team Development involved personality profiling, discussion and feedback to enhance the self awareness of each team member. Individual differences are now celebrated and leveraged more effectively for the benefit of individual and team performance.

